

NAME	NET WORTH	SOURCE OF TRADITIONAL FARM SUBSIDIES	HOW MUCH COLLECTED IN TRADITIONAL SUBSIDIES BETWEEN 1995-2014
Paul Allen, co-founder of Microsoft, principal owner of Seattle Seahawks and Portland Trail Blazers	$17.8 Billion #26 on Forbes 400	Kona Residence Trust, which received $14,429 in barley subsidies from 1996 to 2006.	$14,429.00
Philip Anschutz, AEG Entertainment, co-founder of Major League Soccer	$10.9 Billion #43 on Forbes 400	Clm Company, which received $553,323 in cotton, wheat, sorghum, corn, oat, barley and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2003. Equus Farms, which received $53,191 in livestock subsidies in 2002.	$606,514.00
John Arrillaga, real estate mogul	$2.3 Billion #293 on Forbes 400	Peery & Arrillaga, which received $59,711 in wheat, sorghum, corn, barley, safflower and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2006.	$28,855.50
Lee Bass, Bass family heir	$2 Billion #342 on Forbes 400	Panther City Cattle Company, which received $823,129 in cotton, wheat, corn and sorghum subsidies from 2000 to 2007. El Coyote Ranch, which received $297,950 in wheat, sorghum, corn, soybean, oat and barley subsidies from 1995 to 2002.	$1,121,079.00
Riley Bechtel, chairman of Bechtel Corp.	$2.9 Billion #227 on Forbes 400	Fremont Investors, which received $484,283 in rice and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2003.	$11,622.79
Stephen Bechtel, Jr., CEO of the Bechtel Corporation	$2.9 billion #227 on Forbes 400	Fremont Investors, which received $484,283 in rice and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2003. Wild Goose Club, which received $947 in farm subsidies from 2006 to 2010.	$2,421.42
Eli Broad, co-founder of KB Home and SunAmerica	$7.3 billion #65 on Forbes 400	Placer Ranch Partners LP, which received $56,880 in wheat and rice subsidies from 1995 to 2005.	$39,247.20
James Clark (deceased), former CEO of Clark Enterprises, Inc.	$1.85 billion #372 on Forbes 400	Estate of James Clark, Jr., which received $1,441 in corn, sorghum and soybean subsidies in 2007.	$479.85
Richard DeVos, co-founder of Amway and owner of the Orlando Magic	$5.6 billion #84 on Forbes 400	Ada Holdings LLC, which received $37,986 in corn, wheat and soybean subsidies from 2001 to 2006.	$16,144.05

NAME	NET WORTH	SOURCE OF TRADITIONAL FARM SUBSIDIES	HOW MUCH COLLECTED IN TRADITIONAL SUBSIDIES BETWEEN 1995-2014
Charles Ergen , co-founder and former CEO of Dish Network	$16.4 billion #28 on Forbes 400	Telluray Ranch , which received $117,826 in crop and livestock disaster payments from 2002 to 2008.	$117,826.00
Gerald J. Ford , managing member of the Ford Financial Fund	$2.1 billion #327 on Forbes 400	Rio Hondo Land & Cattle Co. Inc. , which received $222,433 in wool subsidies from 1995 to 2003.	$222,433.00
Harold Hamm , CEO of Continental Resources	$7.4 billion #65 on Forbes 400	$26,785 in wheat subsidies and disaster payments from 1995 to 2002. Continental Resources of Illinois , which received $318 in disaster payments, corn and soybean subsidies from 2003 to 2004.	$27,103.00
Joshua Harris , co-founder of Apollo Global Management, principal owner of the New Jersey Devils and the Philadelphia 76ers	$2.5 billion #268 on Forbes 400	Livingston Orchards LLC , which received $86,600 in crop and livestock disaster subsidies from 2003-2008.	$86,600.00
Diane Hendricks , owner of Hendricks Holding Company	$3.7 billion #159 on Forbes	H&H Farms of Wisconsin Inc. , which received $379,933 in corn, soybean, wheat, oat and other farm subsidies from 1998 to 2001.	$189,966.50
Jeffrey Hildebrand , founder, chairman and CEO of Hilcorp Energy Company	$6.3 billion #73 on Forbes 400	$92,416 in rice subsidies from 1995-2001.	$92,416.00
Ray Lee Hunt , Hunt family heir and CEO of Hunt Consolidated	$5.7 billion #83 on Forbes 400	Sharyland Limited Partnership , which received $110,270 in cotton, sorghum, sunflower and corn subsidies from 1998 to 2000. Hunt Oil Co. , which received $49,381 in livestock subsidies in 2002.	$52,229.00
Paul Tudor Jones, II. , founder of Tudor Investment Corporation	$4.7 billion #114 on Forbes 400	Buck Ridge Farms LLC , which received $8,260 in crop disaster payments, cotton, soybean, sorghum and corn subsidies from 1998 to 2003. Tudor Farms Inc. , which received $1 in sorghum subsidies in 1996.	$7,848.00
George Kaiser , chairman of BOK Financial Corporation	$8.8 billion #53 on Forbes 400	Kaiser-Francis Oil Company , which received $17,518 in wheat, sorghum and barley subsidies from 1996 to 2003.	$12,753.10
Jim Kennedy , chairman of Cox Enterprises	$6.7 billion #61 on Forbes 400	$37,162 in rice, corn, sorghum, wheat, soybean, sunflower and other farm subsidies from 1996 to 2004. York Woods At Yonkapin Cutoff LLC , which received $19,545 in rice, sorghum and soybean subsidies from 2002 to 2003.	$56,707.00

NAME	NET WORTH	SOURCE OF TRADITIONAL FARM SUBSIDIES	HOW MUCH COLLECTED IN TRADITIONAL SUBSIDIES BETWEEN 1995-2014
Ann Walton Kroenke, Wal-Mart and Walton family heir	$4.5 billion #121 on Forbes 400	JL Walton Trust, which received $13,273 in corn, wheat, sorghum, soybean and oat subsidies from 1996 to 2002. St. Roberts Centers & Farms, which received $6,642 in corn, wheat, sorghum and soybean subsidies from 1996 to 2002. $378 in corn and sorghum subsidies in 1995.	$10,335.50
Leonard Lauder, chairman of The Estée Lauder Companies, Inc.	$8.4 billion #55 on Forbes 400	Horizon Organic Dairy Idaho Farm, which received $360,102 in wheat, dairy, barley, corn and other farm subsidies from 1997 to 2004. Horizon Organic Dairy Maryland Farm, which received $202,088 in dairy, corn, soybean, wheat and other farm subsidies from 1998 to 2005.	$29,233.88
Nancy Walton Laurie, Wal-Mart and Walton family heir	$4 billion #138 on Forbes 400	JL Walton Trust, which received $13,273 in corn, wheat, sorghum, soybean and oat subsidies from 1996 to 2002. St. Roberts Centers & Farms, which received $6,642 in corn, wheat, sorghum and soybean subsidies from 1996 to 2002.	$9,957.50
Marianne Liebmann, Cargill family heir	$3 billion #211 on Forbes 400	Morse Land Co. Ltd., which received $4,282 in livestock, barley, oat, wheat and other farm subsidies from 2000 to 2005.	$2,141.00
Gordon Moore, co-founder of Intel Corporation	$6.2 billion #74 on Forbes 400	$6,885 in cotton subsidies from 1999-2003.	$6,885.00
John Morris, owner and former CEO of Bass Pro Shops	$3.9 billion #145 on Forbes 400	American Sportsman Holding Co., which received $109,682 in sorghum, wheat, corn, soybean, barley and oat subsidies from 1995-2009.	$109,682.00
David Murdock, chairman and CEO of Dole Foods Company	$2.9 billion #227 on Forbes 400	International Mining Company, which received $748 in corn subsidies from 1995-1997.	$748.00
Richard Peery, real estate mogul	$2.3 billion #293 on Forbes 400	Peery & Arrillaga, which received $59,711 in wheat, sorghum, corn, barley, safflower and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2006.	$28,855.50
Daniel Pritzker, Pritzker family heir	$2.1 billion #327 on Forbes 400	Chicago Mill & Lumber Co., which received $1,604,288 in cotton, soybean, corn, sorghum, wheat, rice, oat and other farm subsidies from 1996 to 2006.	$3,003.22

NAME	NET WORTH	SOURCE OF TRADITIONAL FARM SUBSIDIES	HOW MUCH COLLECTED IN TRADITIONAL SUBSIDIES BETWEEN 1995-2014
Jay Robert Pritzker, Pritzker family heir	$3.4 billion #182 on Forbes 400	Chicago Mill Lumber Co., which received $1,604,288 in cotton, soybean, corn, sorghum, wheat, rice, oat and other farm subsidies from 1996 to 2006.	$3,003.22
John Pritzker, founder of Commune Hotels and Resorts and Pritzker family heir	$2.3 billion #293 on Forbes 400	Chicago Mill & Lumber Co., which received $1,604,288 in cotton, soybean, corn, sorghum, wheat, rice, oat and other farm subsidies from 1996 to 2006.	$3,003.22
Karen Pritzker, Pritzker family heir	$4.3 billion #129 on Forbes 400	Chicago Mill & Lumber Co., which received $1,604,288 in cotton, soybean, corn, sorghum, wheat, rice, oat and other farm subsidies from 1996 to 2006.	$3,003.22
Linda Pritzker, Pritzker family heir	$1.8 billion #375 on Forbes 400	Chicago Mill & Lumber Co., which received $1,604,288 in cotton, soybean, corn, sorghum, wheat, rice, oat and other farm subsidies from 1996 to 2006.	$3,003.22
Penny Pritzker, U.S. Secretary of Commerce and Pritzker family heir	$2.4 billion #279 on Forbes 400	Chicago Mill & Lumber Co., which received $1,604,288 in cotton, soybean, corn, sorghum, wheat, rice, oat and other farm subsidies from 1996 to 2006.	$3,003.22
Thomas Pritzker, chairman and CEO of The Pritzker Organization and Pritzker family heir	$3 billion #211 on Forbes 400	Chicago Mill & Lumber Co., which received $1,604,288 in cotton, soybean, corn, sorghum, wheat, rice, oat and other farm subsidies from 1996 to 2006.	$3,003.22
Stewart & Lynda Resnick, owners of POM Wonderful, FIJI Water, Teleflora and Wonderful Pistachios	$4.3 billion #129 on Forbes 400	Paramount Land Co. LP, which received $576,603 in wheat, cotton, corn, sorghum and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2002.	$533,934.38
David Rockefeller, Sr., former chairman of Chase Manhattan Corporation and Rockefeller family heir	$3 billion #211 on Forbes 400	$563,715 in corn, soybean, wheat, oat, sorghum and other farm subsidies from 1996 to 2006.	$563,715.00
Gary Rollins, CEO of Rollins Inc.	$2.4 billion #279 on Forbes 400	Lor Inc., which received $180,812 in crop and livestock disaster, corn, livestock, wheat, sorghum and barley subsidies from 1995-2003. Rollins Blue Cypress Ranch, which received $105,185 in corn and sorghum subsidies from 1995-1998.	$90,425.35

NAME	NET WORTH	SOURCE OF TRADITIONAL FARM SUBSIDIES	HOW MUCH COLLECTED IN TRADITIONAL SUBSIDIES BETWEEN 1995-2014
Randall Rollins, chairman of Rollins Inc.	$2.4 billion #279 on Forbes 400	Lor Inc., which received $180,812 in crop and livestock disaster, corn, livestock, wheat, sorghum and barley subsidies from 1995-2003. Rollins Blue Cypress Ranch, which received $105,185 in corn and sorghum subsidies from 1995-1998.	$90,425.35
Robert Rowling, founder of TRT Holdings (Omni Hotels, Gold's Gym, etc.)	$6.1 billion #76 on Forbes 400	Rowling Ranch Corp., which received $157,427 in corn, sorghum and livestock subsidies from 2000 to 2008.	$52,423.00
Fayez Sarofim, money manager and Sarofim family heir	$1.85 billion #372 on Forbes 400	Holly Sugar Corp., which received $51,246 in wheat, corn, barley, sugar beet, oat and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2003. FS Ranch Corporation, which received $67,125 in livestock subsidies in 2002.	$70,507.24
Charles Schwab, founder of the Charles Schwab Corporation	$6.4 billion #72 on Forbes 400	$525,593 in rice and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2003.	$525,593.00
Walter Scott, Jr., former CEO of Peter Kiewit Sons' Incorporated	$3.8 billion #149 on Forbes 400	$62,031 in livestock subsidies in 2002. Double Eight Land Corp., which received $41,101 in livestock subsidies in 2002.	$63,627.49
James Simons, founder and CEO of Renaissance Technologies	$14 billion #32 on Forbes 400	North Fork Preserve Inc., which received $16,050 in corn and sorghum subsidies from 1995-2003.	$112.35
Harry Stein, founder and owner of Stein Seed	$3 billion #211 on Forbes 400	Stein Seed Farm Inc., which received $622,628 in corn, soybean and oat subsidies from 1995-2003. Midwest Oilseeds Inc., which received $354,597 in corn, soybean and oat subsidies from 1995-2008. Eden Enterprises Inc., which received $40,512 in corn and soybean subsidies from 1995-2003	$326,912.64
Warren Stephens, chairman, president and CEO of Stephens Inc.	$2.5 billion #268 on Forbes 400	Stephens Group Incorporated, which received $146,260 in peanut, wheat, corn, oat, sorghum and other farm subsidies from 1996 to 2003. Greenbriar Lodge LLC, which received $86,642 in rice, soybean and wheat subsidies from 2002 to 2008.	$36,286.50

NAME	NET WORTH	SOURCE OF TRADITIONAL FARM SUBSIDIES	HOW MUCH COLLECTED IN TRADITIONAL SUBSIDIES BETWEEN 1995-2014
Glen Taylor, owner of the Star Tribune, Minnesota Timberwolves and Minnesota Lynx	$1.9 billion #358 on Forbes 400	Glen A. Taylor Revocable Trust, which received $832,970 in corn, soybean, wheat, oat and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2007.	$856,924.00
Alice Walton, Wal-Mart and Walton family heir	$32 billion #12 on Forbes 400	Robson Ranch Inc., which received $261,292 in crop disaster payments, wheat, soybean, corn and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2008.	$1,829.04
Jim Walton, Wal-Mart and Walton family heir	$33.7 billion #9 on Forbes 400	Robson Ranch Inc., which received $261,292 in crop disaster payments, wheat, soybean, corn and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2008.	$1,829.04
S. Robson Walton, former chairman of Wal- Mart and Walton family heir	$31.7 billion #13 on Forbes 400	Robson Ranch Inc., which received $261,292 in crop disaster payments, wheat, soybean, corn and other farm subsidies from 1995 to 2008.	$1,829.04
Leslie Wexner, chairman and CEO of L Brands (Victoria Secret, Bath & Body Works, etc.)	$7.6 billion #63 on Forbes 400	LAW Plantation Co. LLC, which received $209,717 in wheat, corn, sorghum and oat subsidies from 1997 to 2003. The New Albany Co., which received $13 in farm subsidies in 1996.	$209,723.37